PAVA Divisions present theatre, concert

"Angel Street", the mystery by Patrick Hamilton, will be offered as a Goppert Theatre production at Avila College on February 8, 9, 15 and 16.

"Angel Street" is also known as "Gaslight", the name under which it was first presented in England. Since it was written, this nerve-tangling tale of Victorian torture has kept audiences perched on the edges of their seats.

Among the play's fans in its early years was Eleanor Roosevelt. The hardest part about the play, she said, is the part of the wife "who is slowly being driven insane by her husband." Critics have hailed the drama as a masterpiece of suspense.

Students featured in the production are Connie Haworth, Andre' Montgomery, Tim Moore, Nancy Nail, Ron Rains, Danny Reardon, and Beth VanHorn.

Performances at Avila College's Goppert Theatre begin at 8 p.m. on each of the four nights the play will be presented. Tickets may be obtained at the Goppert Theatre box office.

Faculty Recital

The Music Division of the Department of Performing and Visual Arts of Avila College announces a Faculty Recital to be presented on Tuesday, February 19, at 8:00 p.m. in Goppert Theatre. Two members of the faculty, Cynthia Hukill and Nancy Kennedy, C.S.J., will perform along with guest artists the Trio La-Jacque-Dette.

Miss Hukill, a native of Arkansas who is presently a doctoral student of Richard Cass' at the U.M.K.C. Conservatory of Music, will play Franz Liszt's Petrarch

Sonnets. Sister Kennedy, whose graduate studies were completed at the University of Notre Dame, will sing Johannes Brahms' Songs for Voice, Viola, and Piano along with a group of songs including works by Gershwin, Kern, and Copland.

The Trio La-Jacque-Dette includes Linda Caruso, violinist, and Jacqueline Michell, cellist, both members of the Kansas City Symphony, and Claudette Schiratti, pianist, a Sister of Mercy and Pastoral Assistant at St. Charles Parish in Kansas City. They will perform Wolfgang Mozart's Trio in B-flat, K. 502, and Ludwig Beethoven's Trio in D, Op. 70, No. 1.

There is no admission for this recital, to which the public is cordially invited.

For further information, contact Daniel Larson, Music Division Coordinator, Avila College, (816) 942-8400, ext. 252.

Take time to recall Easter Story

Lent is a time to recall the EASTER STORY and to absorb its meaning. Lent is a time when Christians are called to examine their lives, to remember the words of Jesus, and to respond to the gospel message: "There are different gifts, but the same Spirit gives them. There are different abilities to perform service, but the same God gives ability to everyone for all services. Each one is given some proof of the Spirit's presence for the good of all." (I Cor. 12:4-7)

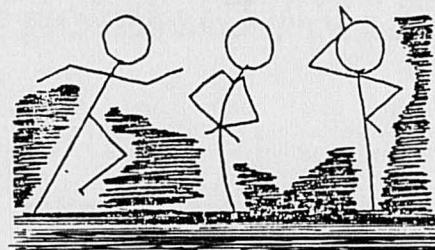

Lenten reflection helps us to get in touch with all that keeps us from being the "person who makes things happen." Lent like Spring is a time of new beginnings. It leads to celebration of the Paschal Mystery only if we remember that in death there is life.

A flower brings forth new life only if it dies, lets go of its seeds and stops clinging to them. The seed of Easter, a new beginning, is within each of us. Will we let go and share this gift with those in need of new life?

The office of Campus Ministry with the assistance of student leaders has planned a diverse lenten program. Some activities include: opportunity for prayer and faith sharing, sacramental experiences, movies followed by discussion, volunteer service opportunities, and a student retreat. Flyers listing the complete program are posted on campus. Further information is available by calling ext. 264.

Financial planning series offers basic education

Designed to encourage women of all ages to take charge of their present and future financial arrangements and security the Department of Continuing Education is offering "Focus on Financial Planning" series.

Hunger movement to organize college students

Bread for the World, a Christian citizen's movement concerned with the world hunger problem, will conduct a Campus Organizing Training Seminar in Manhattan, Kansas.

The seminar, which will begin February 15 at 6:00 p.m. and conclude February 16 at 3:30 p.m., will enable students to return to their own campuses and help organize an anti-hunger group with a public policy focus.

The seminar will include workshops about anti-hunger legislation, domestic hunger issues, the famine in Africa, and event planning. Students will develop plans to increase awareness on campus of the needs of the hungry and ways in which students can respond.

The seminar cost is $5.00 per person, and Bread for the World will supply housing, materials, and training at the seminar.

The seminar location is the Baptist Campus Center, 1801 Anderson, Manhattan, Kansas. For more details call David Stewart at (913) 539-3051.

The series begins Wednesday, February 20 and continues the next three Wednesdays, and will meet in the Whitfield Centre Conference Room from 7 to 8:30 p.m.

Ms. Kris Williams, an account executive and investment consultant will assist women participants in the very basics of financial planning.

"Advantages of the series are that it will not promote a single brokerage or financial management firm and that members of the Avila community may register for half price at $15.00," said Dr. Kay Sullivan, Director of the Department of Continuing Education.

The classes are designed to be informative and to respond to individual questions and learning needs regarding money management.

To register or for further information, please call Dr. Sullivan or the staff at 942-8400, extension 280.
